Great Musgrave, Westmorland - Baptisms - Database: familysearch.org England, Births and Christenings, 1538-1975

Great Musgrave was a parish, in East ward and union, county of Westmorland. It is now located in the Eden district of Cumbria. It is about one mile away from Brough. It also includes the parish of Little Musgrave. The parish church of St Theobald dates from 1845-46, but two earlier churches (the first dating back to the 12th century) stood nearby. The village name comes from the Musgrave family who lived there.
